Membership Matters

When you join Recovery Canada, you join a non-profit organization representing a network of people who see the value in our self-help programs and the need to bring them to as many people as possible. Whether the Recovery Method has touched your life or the life of someone you care about, or if you just believe in creating a better world, your membership demonstrates your personal belief in changing lives. Sign up for membership today by filling out the following form.

Please Note: A membership in Recovery Canada entitles you to membership in Recovery International, allows you to participate in the assigned Telephone Meetings, and is required to be a leader in the organization.

Please use the following form if you wish to send your membership form and cheque by mail. If you wish to use the online service and use your credit card for payment instead please visit the website link at the bottom of the page and follow the instructions there. Once you fill out the form below please mail it along with your cheque made out to Recovery Canada to the following address:
